Information Pertaining to Various Agenda Items:

C. Subtle Sexism Workshop: The plan is to offer this on April 29.

D. Multicultural Décor: We'll have a report covering the student lunch meetings we've had and the mural design contest.

E. After-School Help Center: Please bring ideas on how to successfully encourage more students to take advantage of this resource.

F. Algebra Conceptualized: This is a new "common assessment" program for Algebra 1 that all middle and high schools have either implemented this year or are piloting this year. The South Math Department has many concerns about this which South administrators have expressed to district leaders. Virginia will report more.

G. Curriculum Committee: This group is recommending approval of the social studies dept's companion proposal for a semester-long Economics course to go along with the U.S. Gov't course we approved last month. We'll also introduce several proposals that the English dept. has brought forward.

H. Randy will lead discussion on the challenging economic times we are facing and what this will likely mean to our district. Along with this, it's more important than ever to keep our goals and values clearly in mind.
